

Food in Books, ep.4 : The Crossword Puzzle

www.thepickledspruit.org

HORIZONTAL

1. Cicikov is offered this traditional, simple, Russian broth when he visits Manilov for the first time 2. Food ingredient prominently featured in Hamsun's novel, Hunger 3. Simonini's grandfather warns him about Jews- their "smell" is due to excess use of and onion. (U. Eco, The Prague Cemetery) 4. That yoga sound - You find these in the kitchen and at the parties thrown by Simonini's abbots (sg.) 5. Not even the goods sent from home could save Fritz Rothein, moribund from the House of Berghof. His parents sent and spiced eel (T. Mann, The magic mountain) 6. Food trends are ...! - After escaping from Constantinople, Baudolino and Niketas find refuge around a hot meal: It was a bronze pot full of and pork, bones not entirely stripped, and Phrygian cabbage, saturated with fat (U. Eco, Baudolino) 7. The other Murakami's soup 8. Au Recherche du Cancale in rue Montorgueil used to have the best in Paris; Simonini goes there for lunch with Brafmann (U. Eco, The Prague Cemetery) - Low-carb nuttbar! 9. Otilia Einstein! - City in the US claiming credit for California Rolls 10. During their very first meeting, Kenji tells Frank this drink is especially expensive and best avoided (R. Murakami, In the ... soup) - See 10 horizontal: type of the aforementioned drink

11: AWSOME food! - In the restaurant aux pieds humides, the clients queue in the street, get in and all plunge a huge fork into a cauldron where they fish out what they could: a piece of meat, if lucky or a carrot. How much does such a meal cost? One ... (U. Eco, The Prague Cemetery) 12. The poor old woman sells this confectionary at the market corner (K. Hamsun, Hunger) 13. Jun adds this food item in the instant noodle soup, while discussing with Kenji the murder in the newspaper:balls (In the ...soup, R. Murakami) - Character created by P.G. Woodhouse whose name is G. D'Arcy "Stilton"wright (P. G. Woodhouse, Jeeves & Bertie book series).

VERTICAL

1. Made with a handful of parsley, a few anchovy fillets, a clove of garlic, the yolk of a hard-boiled egg, all finely chopped with olive oil and vinegar- this paste is added to the soup by Simonini's grandfather. VERDE (U. Eco, The Prague Cemetery) 3. Piece of oven-baked meat enjoyed, usually beef, enjoyed by all 4. Umberto Eco's travelling companion (essay) - Rainbow colored candy invented by Fred and George Weasley: Ton-Tongue ... (J.K. Rowling, Harry Potter series) 5. With the money from the "stolen candle", our hero treats himself to a serving of (K. Hamsun, Hunger) 6. Fresh water fish, served at the impromptu feast given at the Head of Police (N.V. Gogol, Dead Souls) - Type of world's cuisine best describing the cooking in Ryu Murakami's novels 7. Many times, Baudolino and his friends have eaten this casserole dish, made on the open fire (U. Eco, Baudolino) 8. In an act of desperation, our hero asks the butcher at the meat hall for this food item (K. Hamsun, Hunger) 9. The peasant girl offers her body to the monks for this food item (U. Eco, The name of the rose) - You receive it after a meal away from home 10. A dish from a distant (fake) memory from a dinner taking place at Cafe Anglaise, in Paris. Among other, Simonini remembers thede turbot au gratin (U. Eco, The Prague Cemetery) 11. Invited at the feast given by the Head of Police, Sobakevici finishes this dish all by himself in less than 15 minutes (N.V. Gogol, Dead Souls) - A golden symbol 13. Popular chocolate candy eaten by Ron and Harry, which comes with a much sought for card (J.K. Rowling, Harry Potter series) - Hans Castorp and his cousin Joachim have this soup during their very first meal together in the House of Berghof. Soupe d'.... (FR) (T. Mann, The magic mountain).

Notes